The flowers on the Altar are given to the glory of God and in honor of Anne Moffatt and K.B. Son, our mothers, and all mothers on this beautiful Mother's Day by Mark and Sang Im Moffatt.

Fellowship Time is a time to extend welcome and hospitality to others each Sunday from 10:30-11:00am in the Fellowship Hall, directly below the sanctuary. Come downstairs and enjoy the refreshments and meet some new friends and guests.

Shoes for Souls—Today is the final day for collecting shoes for the Philippines. All sizes of boys and girls shoes, either new or gently used, are welcome. A collection box is in the Fellowship Hall. Please include $1 to help with shipping costs. These shoes are distributed by United Methodist Churches in The Philippines, especially in the mountain communities. Fairfax UMC has sent 500 pairs of shoes in two years.

All are welcome to the Methodist Men Fellowship Dinner on Wednesday May 15th in the Fellowship Hall. The speaker for our Fellowship Dinner is Tom Scibilia who will share his spiritual journey and his experiences as the Treasurer for Fairfax City. We will gather at 6:45 pm in the Fellowship Hall and dinner is served at 7:00 pm. There is no charge for the meal. The dinner menu is meatloaf, green beans, mashed potatoes, salad and bread. A freewill offering will be received. If you are interested in attending, please contact Jim Conklin (703) 385-1106 by Monday May 13th.

Openings are available to host the Fellowship Time for the next few months. Would you, your family, Sunday School class, or other group like to participate? This is not a feast but light refreshment. It is for a time of friendship, hospitality and sharing the love of Christ with others. We have a sign-up genius link to volunteer at http://bit.ly/fumc_hospitality. Contact Gayle Lorenz at gayle19387@yahoo.com if needed. The church provides the snacks when there is no sponsoring group and volunteers are needed to help set up and clean up the snacks on those Sundays. Please contact Pastor Amy if you would like to assist.

Lamb Center Collection for May—The Lamb Center is the day facility for the homeless in Fairfax City. Every month a church or organization collects needed supplies for the center and it is our turn for May! There are bags in the Narthex with lists stapled to them to fill and return to the church to get needed supplies to the Lamb Center. Thank you for meeting the needs of our neighbors!
